

NOTICE

If there are any questions concerning these forms or the use of these forms, it is strongly recommended that the services of an attorney be obtained. Georgia Law prohibits the court personnel of the Southern Judicial Circuit from providing legal advice or assisting in the selection or completion of legal forms for filing with this Court. Nothing in this website constitutes legal advice.

Due to the Changing Nature of the Law, the legal forms and information on this website may become outdated. Therefore, you should review and research statutes and procedures to ensure that the forms are accurate and current. The Southern Judicial Circuit assumes no liability for any legal consequences arising out of the listing of inaccurate or outdated information on these forms. Use these forms at your own risk. These forms may or may not be appropriate in your particular case. Any desired outcome from the use of these forms cannot be predicted or guaranteed. It is strongly recommended that you seek legal advice.

If you are financially unable to afford the services of an attorney, you should contact the following organization to determine if you are eligible for their services:

Georgia Legal Services Program
131 West Oglethorpe Boulevard
Albany, Georgia 31701
(229) 430-4446 - Phone
(229) 430-4434 - Fax

If you or someone in your family is a victim of Domestic Violence, you are urged to contact your local shelter to speak to an advocate, i.e.,

Brooks County

Jackie Johns
Post Office Box 272
Quitman, Georgia 31643
(229) 263-9866

Lowndes County

Tiffanie Thomas
Post Office Box 5382
Valdosta, Georgia 31603
(229) 244-4477

Colquitt County

Shanice Roseborough
Melissa Sparks
Post Office Box 14
Moultrie, Georgia 31776
(229) 782-5394

Thomas County

Deborah A. Murray
Post Office Box 1838
Thomasville, Georgia 31799
(229) 226-6666